

MVP Award Entry Form

This award seeks to recognize an employee who has made an exceptional contribution through their involvement, leadership and ability to make a difference in the company. This person exceeds normal expectations, and furthers the company's mission by delivering services of superior quality to customers, partners, peers and/or stakeholders.

Examples of exceeding expectations may include: going above and beyond the call of duty in providing assistance to customers or colleagues; consistently providing exceptional, accurate and professional work; and proactively noticing needs and taking the initiative to meet those needs.

Eligibility:

All employees of current ALCC member companies are eligible to be nominated for this award. Nominators can be the nominee's co-worker, peer, supervisor, manager, etc. but must be in the industry and ideally, from the same company as the nominee.

Past award recipients cannot be nominated.

Deadline for Submission:

All entries must be received by 5pm on December 10, 2019. Submit completed entry form to memdin@alcc.com.

Entry Fee:

There is no fee to submit an application for consideration in this category.
